Praises

- A healthy pregnancy so far for Patricia
- A beautiful summer and special times with family and friends

Dear family and friends, What a blessing it is to have you a part of our journey to Ecuador! Thank you for your commitment to pray for us. Changes abound in our lives right now, and we constantly rely on the Lord's grace for our every need. Justo recently quit his full time job with his engineering company and we are now transitioning into ministry life. So far, Patricia's pregnancy has gone well, and our baby is due December 18. We are about to head off on a long trip through Washington,

California, Arizona, and Texas to visit churches and share our vision for our mission in Ecuador.

So what is our vision? We see our ministry focusing mainly on discipleship. We will continue working on intentionally discipling the youth in the church. The two previous years Justo spent in Ecuador will help tremendously in jumping back into the relationships already established there.

We will also continue to encourage homeschooling and work with families who are interested in starting. Both of us had the blessing of being schooled at home and we hope to share our experiences with these new families.

Finally, we see a need to work with families that are new Christians, many of whom are first generation Christians with many unbelievers in their families. Our desire is to help these families mature and grow in their faith and witness.

We look forward to the months ahead when we will be able to visit many of you in your churches and homes. Our tentative plan is to leave for Ecuador in April 2012. God bless each of you as you continue to serve Him where He has placed you. We are grateful for your prayers and support!
